

Harvest Kitchen, 124 Harbord St, Toronto

Innis Town Hall, University of Toronto, 2 Sussex Ave, Toronto

Robert Gill Theater, 214 College, Toronto

Tiff Bell Lightbox, 350 King St W, Toronto

TRANSNATIONAL PERSPECTIVES ON BLACK GERMANY

Reframing history and life narratives

A collaboration between The Black German Heritage & Research Association and the University of Toronto to foster international engagement with the social and cultural history of Black Germans.

Organizing Committee

Angelica Fenner, University of Toronto
 Karina Griffith, University of Toronto
 Sara Lennox, University of Massachusetts
 Rosemarie Peña, Rutgers University

Sponsoring Units:

Germanic Languages & Literatures, Cinema Studies Institute, Women and Gender Studies Institute
 Centre for Transnational and Diaspora Studies, Centre for the United States, Centre for Comparative Literature

WEDNESDAY

TIFF Bell Lightbox, 350 King Street West

7:00 p.m. Screening: At Second Glance (Auf den zweiten Blick, Sheri Hagen, FRG, 2012)

Moderators: Angelica Fenner and Karina Griffith

With director in attendance. Sheri Hagen was born in Lagos, Nigeria and grew up in Hamburg. She studied at the Stage School of Dance and Drama, as well as in the Studio Theater an der Wien. Both a filmmaker and an actress, she has performed in diverse theater and film productions. At Second Glance is Sheri Hagen's debut feature film.

THURSDAY

Innis Town Hall, 2 Sussex Ave.

9:15 – 9:30 a.m. Welcoming Remarks

Rosemarie Peña, President, Black German Heritage and Research Association
Markus Stock, Chair, Germanic Languages & Literatures, University of Toronto
Angelica Fenner, Associate Professor, German and Cinema Studies, University of Toronto

9:30 - 11:00 a.m. Panel 1: Framing Oral Histories in Scholarship, Arts, and Activism

Moderator: Rinaldo Walcott, University of Toronto

Silvia Wojczewski, University of Lausanne, Afro-german, Afro-pean-, Afro-politan –The Relation Between Travel and the Practice and Narration of Diasporic Selves
Daniel Williams, St. Catherine University, Constructing Black German Identities Through Local, National, and Global Blackness: Germany from a North American Perspective
Karina Griffith, University of Toronto, What is Producing for Us?

11:15 - 12:15 p.m. Panel 2: Intersectional Canadian Life Narratives

Moderator: Warren Crichlow, York University

Michèle Newton, My Better Together Journey, Freelance writer and creator of "Our Mosaic Lives," a blog celebrating Black Canadian women.
Mark Morrison-Reed, I Was Simply a Living Wonder: Reflection on my life in Switzerland, Unitarian Universalist minister and historian of the African American experience within Unitarian Universalism.

12:15 - 1:30 p.m. Buffet Lunch for Registrants / Innis College Residence1:30 - 3:00 p.m. Panel 3: Belonging and Resistance

Moderator: Karina Griffith, University of Toronto

Jamele Watkins, Stanford University, Afrolocken: Natural Hair in Germany
Folashade Ajayi, Humboldt University, Making Diversity Work and Fight—Black Political Organizing in Germany
Melba Boyd, Wayne State University, From Black Detroit to Green Bremen

3:00 - 3:30 p.m. Coffee Break3:30 - 5:00 p.m. Keynote: Fatima El-Tayeb

Moderator: Sara Lennox, University of Massachusetts

Beyond the Black Paradigm? Afro-diasporic Strategies in the Age of Neo-Nationalism

Fatima El-Tayeb is professor of Literature and Ethnic Studies at the University of California, San Diego. Her work deconstructs structural racism in "colorblind" Europe and centers strategies of resistance among racialized communities, especially those that politicize culture through an intersectional, queer practice. She is the author of three books and numerous articles on the interactions of race, gender, sexuality, religion and nation. She is active in Black feminist, migrant, and queer of color organizations in Europe and the US.

5:00 - 7:30 p.m. Dinner On Your Own7:30 - 9:00 p.m. Cultural Evening: Layla Zami/Oxana Chi: I Step on Air

Robert Gill Theatre, 214 College St.

Moderator: Rosemarie Peña, Rutgers University

I Step on Air was originally conceived by Oxana Chi in 2012 as a commissioned work for Humboldt University. It carries into the future the life and legacy of May Ayim (1960-1996), who was an internationally celebrated Afro-German poet, performer, linguist, scholar, and feminist activist, also known in Europe as "the Afro-German Audre Lorde." In this dance-music-word-performance, the audience is invited to reflect upon May Ayim's afterlife, and to commemorate and celebrate her performative talent, lifelong community engagement and struggle for liberation and solidarity.

FRIDAY

Innis Town Hall, 2 Sussex Avenue

9:30 - 11:00 a.m. Panel 4: Cinema, Archives, Authorship

Moderator: Angelica Fenner, University of Toronto

BethAnne Dorn, University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill/Duke University, "Poor Otomo": Frieder Schlaich's Otomo and the Persistence of the Colonial Gaze
Alexa Mendez, University of Pennsylvania, Afro-Germans in Grass Skirts: The Exploitation of Blackness in Nazi German Cinema
Imke Brust, Haverford College, Transnational Dimensions of Heimat and National Images of Hybridity in Mo Asumong's Roots Germania

11:15 - 12:30 p.m. Panel 5: Life Lines: Transatlantic Adoption

Moderator: Rosemarie Peña, Rutgers University

Screening of Love and Rage (Liebe und Wut, dir. Jule Ritter, 2015, 52 min.)

---followed by Skype discussion with Diane Truly and Andreas Nakic

This German documentary is based on the life and reunion story of Andreas Nakic, adopted in Colorado and raised in Germany. Diane Truly is Andy's mother.

12:30 - 1:45 p.m. Buffet Lunch for Registrants / Innis College Residence1:45 - 3:15 p.m. Panel 6: Intertextuality, Mobility, and Global Blackness

Moderator: Deborah Janson, Western Virginia University

Philipp Rohrbach, University of Vienna, Tabooed History: The Life Stories of Austrian Children of Black American Occupation Soldiers
Priscilla Layne, University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, The Stakes of Representation and Fantasy in Black German Theater: Simone Dede Ayivi's First Black Woman in Space
Sara Phillips Casteel, Carleton University, Broken Citizenship: Hans J. Massaquoi's Survivor Memoir and Its Literary Influence

3:30 - 5:00 p.m. Keynote: Noah Sow

Moderator: Rosemarie Peña, Rutgers University

Activists // Academia: Visions and Challenges for Black German Studies 2.0

Noah Sow is Germany's most prominent speaker and lecturer on the topics of Black German politics, arts and resistance. She is also a writer, artist, media personality, theorist and activist. Her writings have considerably influenced German popular media and academia, and her book Deutschland Schwarz Weiß has become a standard in discussion and education about racial equality in Germany.

5:30 p.m. Banquet for Registrants